

Getting
To Zero

No New Hepatitis C Infections.
No Discrimination.
No Hepatitis C Related Deaths.

May is National Aboriginal Hepatitis C Awareness Month

Hosted by
Chee Mamuk, BC Centre for Disease Control &
Canadian Aboriginal AIDS Network

Women, Children and Families: Going On Treatment

May 12, 2016

11:00 am – 2:00 pm

Vancouver Aboriginal Friendship Centre,
Chief Simon Baker Room,
1607 East Hastings Street,
Vancouver, BC

- Traditional opening and prayer
- Local dancers
- Speakers: People with lived experiences
- Vancouver Native Health nurses to provide sero-marker tests and tests to determine fibrosis status and Hepatitis C testing

For more information please visit: www.caan.ca

BC Centre for Disease Control
An agency of the Provincial Health Services Authority

Funding Made Possible By Public Health Agency of Canada