

A photograph of a woman and two children standing on a rocky, coastal landscape under a blue sky. The woman, in the center, wears a large, heavy parka with a thick fur collar and cuffs, featuring grey and white horizontal stripes. She has dark hair and wears glasses. A young child is perched on her back, wearing a pink patterned garment. In the foreground, another young child stands, wearing a white knit sweater with a blue and black geometric pattern across the chest and grey pants. The background shows a rocky shore with some low-lying vegetation and a calm sea under a clear blue sky. The overall mood is serene and traditional.
